We are proudly co-sponsoring the full-day conference with the Penn Cultural Heritage Center at the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology in Philadelphia.

Opening Keynote: evening of Thursday, March 26th by Professor Mariano J. Aznar-Gómez, Treasure hunters, sunken State vessels and the 2001 UNESCO Convention

The Conference will also explore some of these issues:

- The problem of looting in Egypt and Cambodia, the legal context and response;
- The legal framework for emergency responses to heritage destruction in times of conflict, particularly focusing on the case of Syria;
- Legal responsibilities and due diligence in relation to provenance research and acquisitions;
- The museum response to the legal environment and collecting ethics; and
- Professor Patty Gerstenblith's Keynote address on the adequacy of U.S. law, policy and practice in preventing looting and the international trade of looted objects.

This program has been approved for 4.5 substantive and 1.0 ethic credit hours for Pennsylvania lawyers. CLE credit may be available in other jurisdictions as well. Attendees seeking CLE credit should bring separate payment in the amount of $82.50 ($41.25 public interest/non-profit attorneys) cash or check made payable to The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania.
